

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Thorpe and Miss Jetta Thorpe spent Tuesday in Richmond.

Col. Wilson Miles Cary, of Baltimore, was a visitor at the college on Tuesday.

Miss Lettie Warburton has had as her guest this week, Miss Alice Brand, of Lightfoot.

Mrs. W. W. Galt, of Norfolk spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. W. T. Christian.

Mr. R. L. Spencer spent Monday with Dr. Thomas H. Barnes, of Suffolk, who is very ill.

Miss Elizabeth Deacon has been the guest of Mrs. E. T. Carpenter in Richmond the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Breeden, of Shenandoah, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bucktrout at the "Oaks."

Mrs. Virginia Maddux, of Chase City, left on Monday after visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. N. Phillips.

Mrs. Shelton, of Covington, Ky., who before her marriage was Miss Nora Lively, of this city, is the guest of Miss Geneva Mullen and other friends here.

Miss Sallie Witherspoon, of Petersburg, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Bettie Henley. Miss Witherspoon expects to spend the summer as usual in Blackstone.

Miss Florence Sweeney left on Tuesday for an extended visit to friends in Washington and New York. Mrs. Sweeney accompanied her as far as Richmond.

Lieut. and Mrs. Edward Darlington Jones, of New London, Conn., are here on a visit to the former's parents, Prof. and Mrs. W. G. Jones. Mr. Jones is an officer in the United States Revenue Cutter service.

Mrs. Joseph Parsley returned last Thursday from an extended trip in New England, New York city, and Washington, D. C. The occasion of Mrs. Parsley's trip was to see Miss Pearl A. Parsley graduated from Emerson College of Oratory where she has been doing splendid work. Mrs. Parsley thoroughly enjoyed her vacation and appreciated the wonderful commencement program given by that college.

The many friends here of Mr. R. I. Hunter, manager of the York Furniture Co., will be gratified to hear that the surgical operation which he underwent yesterday in a Norfolk hospital was a complete success and his early recovery is assured.

E. M. Slauson, the pioneer grower of alfalfa in this section, has cut forty five tons of first class hay from 11 acres, and still has five acres to cut. He expects to get four more cuttings from the same fields. His success with alfalfa has been the means of inducing other farmers to plant.

TOANO SCHOOL FINALS JUNE 3 AND 4

Commencement exercises of the Toano High School, Prof. C. A. Edwards, principal, will begin Sunday, June 1, with the baccalaureate sermon at Mt. Vernon church, delivered by the Rev. J. A. Wynne, at 11 a. m.

On Tuesday evening at 8 a play, "Visions of Youth," will be presented in the auditorium by the graduates, assisted by pupils of the school.

Final exercises will be held Wednesday, June 4, at 8 p. m., with the following programme: Invocation, Rev. A. J. Renforth; When Life is Brightest, school chorus; Among the Daisies, Miss Mary Mowbray Branch; To Spring, Miss Julia Carlton; Commencement address, Mr. J. B. Terrell; valse caprice, Miss Lucile Marston; grande Polka de Concert, Misses Julia Carlton and Ann Cary Geddy. Diplomas will be delivered by Supt. W. B. Coggin, closing with "Goodnight, beloved," by school chorus.

HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK

GOSSIP OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD BOILED DOWN

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bethune, Jr., died in a Newport News hospital Tuesday and the remains were brought here yesterday for burial in Cedar Grove cemetery.

Dr. H. U. Stephenson, the well known Toano physician, has been elected president of the Alumni Society of the Medical College of Virginia.

According to the Richmond Journal, T. P. White, a York county farmer, was dragged from the canal in a drowning condition Tuesday night, the policeman's timely arrival saving White's life. It appears White had gone to Richmond to see his brother graduate from a local medical college, loaded up on liquor and wandered in the vicinity of the canal. He was placed under arrest and will be held pending an investigation into his sanity.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, of Norfolk, spent Sunday here with Col. and Mrs. L. W. Lane, Jr.; Mrs. Johnson being a sister of Mrs. Lane.

While driving her automobile in the eastern end of town Sunday afternoon, Miss Laura Spencer ran into Dick Mahone's machine, damaging it considerably. No one was injured.

Prof. W. G. Jones, principal of the Madison School, Richmond spent Sunday here with his family. George P. Coleman, assistant state highway commissioner, spent Sunday here with his family.

The Jamestown School will hold its commencement exercises at Five Forks tonight. The school picnic will be held at St. George's tomorrow.

J. S. Hubbard, an old confederate soldier, died in his home near Diascond bridge last Saturday and was buried from Liberty church Sunday.

Mr. Hubbard, who left no immediate family, was a native of James City. His nephew, E. L. Hubbard, of Richmond, qualified as administrator on the estate, which is small, in the clerk's office here Tuesday.

Lectures were suspended at William and Mary Tuesday and final examination began yesterday. From now on till the end there will be some hard boning up in the west end of Williamsburg.

Capt. L. W. Lane, president of the Bank of Williamsburg, and a large property owner, has increased his holding by the purchase of the brick building adjoining Lane & Christian's. This is one of the best built brick buildings in the city, and is located on a fine lot, but the price paid was only $1000. Another illustration of the depreciation of values.

The failure of the Hon. H. C. Stuart to address the people of Williamsburg here last Friday night was a great disappointment to his many friends. Mr. Stuart, who was to have addressed the Southwest Club at the college, telegraphed Thursday evening that he was forced to cancel his engagement at this time much to the regret. Preparations had been made to give him a pleasant visit to Williamsburg.

30,000 VOICES!

And Many Are The Voices Of Williamsburg People.

Thirty thousand voices—What a grand chorus! And that's the number of American men and women who are publicly praising Doan's Kidney Pills for relief from backache, kidney and bladder ills. They say it to friends. They tell it in the home papers. Williamsburg people are in this chorus. Here's a Williamsburg case.

M. S. Jewett, York St., Williamsburg, Va., says: "I have not taken Doan's Kidney Pills very long, but when I had a pain across my back, I used them. In a short time they brought relief. I give the credit to Doan's Kidney Pills as I used nothing else."

The above statement must carry conviction to the mind of every reader. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctively for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Jewett had the remedy backed by home testimony; 50c. all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
